

Hires Household Extract

contains the actual juices of roots, barks, herbs and berries. It makes rootbeer as pure as it is sparkling and delicious.

THE CHARLES E. HIRES COMPANY Philadelphia, Pa.

75c AN HOUR FOR LABORERS

This is what you can add to your income by working an hour or two each day in your garden.

Plant now, Radishes, for mid-summer use, corn, beans, cucumbers and squash.

Buy your garden tools and lawn mowers, felt shingles, tar paper, poultry netting, fruit jars, electric fans, screens and screen doors of

EATON CHASE CO.
129 Main Street, Norwich

NOTICE

Dr. Curtis Bernard's office will be closed until Monday, June 14th.

NOTICE

I will be responsible for no bills contracted other than by myself.
CHARLES H. PRESTON.
Waterbury, Conn. June 4th, 1920.

FOUR MARKED ROBBERS

HELD UP THE ENFIELD INN
Thompsonville, Conn., June 6.—Four masked robbers held up the Enfield Inn here late tonight, obtained $135 in cash and jewelry valued at $1,800, and escaped in an automobile. The bandits entered through a ground floor window. Frank Jackson, an employee of the inn, was struck over the head and $25 taken from his pockets. The quartet then entered the office, where James J. Cahill, a warehouseman, was sitting. He was relieved of $100 at the point of a revolver. Cahill was waiting for Gus C. Henning, proprietor of the inn, who had gone upstairs. Leaving one man on guard in the office, the other three directed Cahill and Jackson to lead the way to Henning's room. Henning was asked to hand over a diamond ring he wore and was struck in the face when he hesitated. Mrs. Henning was then forced to leave her bed while the trio ransacked the room. Among other articles they secured a diamond scarf pin. The men then departed hurriedly.

AUTO CRASHED INTO

GOLDEN SPUR BRIDGE
Colton D. Noble, a prominent resident of New Britain, was badly shaken up, bruised and cut by glass, and also received a slight concussion of the brain, when his Cadillac limousine crashed into the north guard rail of the state highway bridge at the Golden Spur at 1:35 Saturday morning. The damage to the car was estimated at about $2,000.

Her Twelfth Birthday

Miss Mary Irene Hansen of Plain Hill road celebrated her 12th birthday on Memorial day by giving a party from 10 to 12 o'clock. There were 11 guests. Refreshments of lemonade, cookies, cake, fruit and ice cream were served following games. There were piano selections by Mary Hansen and Dorothy Hansen. The hosts received many pretty gifts.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Norwich, Monday, June 7, 1920.

Light weather lamps at 2:45 this evening.

Good growing weather is promised for this week.

The season has opened well at Point o' Woods Beach, East Lyme.

This week the census at Norwich State Hospital shows 1353 patients.

Snowballs, which are usually in bloom for Memorial Day, are a week late this year.

Governor M. H. Holcomb's Flag Day proclamation is posted in the Otis Library.

At 10:45, Mrs. Clara Hamner is planning a whist party for the benefit of the Red Cross.

During Sunday afternoon the reading room at the Otis Library was in charge of Miss Harriet G. Cross.

Renovation, repainting and painting are in progress at the residence of Louis P. Roath, on Warren street.

Join our Victor record club. It's not an exchange library, you select 12 or more records and pay $1 or more weekly. Come in and select your records today. All records positively brand new. The Plut-Cadden Co.—adv.

It is noted that Mr. and Mrs. Edward Burdick of Cross Mills, R. I., have been visiting friends in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hopkins and children motored from Plainfield recently and spent a day at Lord's Point.

The mercury took a big drop Saturday and in many households furnace fires were started up, as night came on.

Although a day of steady rain Saturday made the moisture was necessary for the crops.

The June White Ribbon Banner acknowledges contributions to Banner fund as follows: Central Village, $1. Putnam $1. New Fairfield $4.

At the Central Baptist church, Miss Helen Kilburn, the new pastor's assistant and young people's workers participated in the meeting Sunday evening.

Mrs. Mabel Kimber of the Clark's Falls union was re-elected president of the district of the W. C. T. U. at the annual meeting held in Westbury.

Next release of record hits for your Victrola June 10th. The Plut-Cadden Co.—adv.

A Bradford, R. I., correspondent mentions that J. Edwin Gardiner was among 400 in attendance at the Old Colony celebration in Norwich Thursday last.

This week the two curates of St. Patrick's church will continue the parish census, visiting the West Side, Boswell avenue, Broad street and adjacent sections.

Inability of the state highway department to procure oil for purposes of dust laying is responsible for the dusty condition of the highways in some sections of the state.

Of local interest is the Newport society item that Pauline Bigelow, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. J. Francis A. Clark at Wrentham House, has returned to New York.

Home grown strawberries should make their appearance in the markets shortly. They are considerably later than usual, owing to the backward season. Long Island berries are now in the markets.

The Methodist Women's Home Missionary Society will hold a district meeting at Uxbridge, June 10th, with morning session at 10:15, afternoon at 1:30 and the 40th birthday party at 5 o'clock.

Miss Sarah Adamson is now in charge of the visiting nurse work in Mystic. Miss Adamson is a graduate of Stonington High school and of the Rhode Island Hospital Nurses' Training School, Providence.

Our great American tenor, Evan Williams has passed away. Remember him with his last victrola record, "Tostle's Good Bye." The Plut-Cadden Co.—adv.

When the Stafford Springs Merchants' ball team defeated the Clerks' nine 10-3 the other day, the Press says the Clerks found it exceedingly hard to find the delivery of the Merchants' moundman, L. W. Zeis, formerly of Norwich.

Schooner Grace Phillips, formerly owned in New York, but now owned by New York parties, was loaded with 2400 cwt. caught on Nantucket shoals, put in to Noank the other day for a supply of gasoline while on her way up the Sound.

According to a pamphlet published by the state park commission, it is desired that the new state park at Madison be used for picnic purposes, camping and outdoor life by the people of Connecticut, provided it is used in a wholesome and reasonable way.

The United States civil service commission announces for June 8 an examination for foreman, 14,000 ton press for armor plate and large-caliber guns, at $11.40 to $12.28 a day, for vacancies at the United States Ordnance Plant, South Charleston, W. Va.

Complete stock on hand of all the latest hits for your Victrola at The Plut-Cadden Co.—adv.

On their motor trip across the continent, Dr. S. Wilcox, superintendent of Norwich State Hospital, and his wife and children, Sam and Lucy, were last heard from at Cleveland, June 3, where Dr. Wilcox was due to address a convention of psychological specialists.

The old Slater Mill at Pawtucket, R. I., where Samuel Slater, great-grandfather of the late William A. Slater, of Norwich, built the first cotton weaving machinery in America, is to be turned into a textile machine museum by the Pawtucket Chamber of Commerce.

Potato crops in Connecticut this year will be short fifteen per cent. of the average used for this purpose last year, and there are four per cent. less cows on the farms than a year ago and twenty per cent. less labor. Storrs college press bulletin says.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Middleton of No. 550 Park avenue, New York, and Mrs. Middleton, who have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mary Middleton, to James Douglas Collier, son of James Collier of Nottingham, England. No date has been set for the wedding.

Roosevelt House, which the Woman's Roosevelt Memorial Association is to recreate on the site of Theodore Roosevelt's birthplace, offers three annual scholarships for the best essays on the life of the ex-president. The winners to be chosen from successful competitors in state contests.

The calendar of the United Congregational church this week contains the story of the cabinet of the woman's Guild wish to express appreciation at the way in which the women of the parish have used the preference cards to assist the Guild in its new work. The replies have been most numerous.

A person residing in the neighborhood of Jewett City, who planted several rows of bush beans on a side hill Thursday morning, was somewhat surprised that that evening following the thunder shower, to find the beans at the foot of the hill. The rain was so severe in that section it was stated that it seemed as though there had been a cloud burst, which was responsible for the beans leaving their first location.

A. S. Back From Conference.
A. S. Knowles, boys' secretary at the local Y. M. C. A., has returned to his home here after spending two weeks at the Y. M. C. A. conference at the world conference of boys' secretaries.

Some men are too lazy to make either enemies or friends.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Smith of Baltic, were visitors in Norwich on Friday.

Mrs. J. P. Newton has returned to Saybrook after a short visit with relatives in Norwich.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. Higgins of Hartford were the guests of friends in this city on Sunday.

George Mullin of Bristol, formerly of this city, was the guest of friends in this city over the week end.

Mrs. Clarence Carrington of Noank was in Norwich to attend the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. Charles S. Avery.

William J. McKnight, a student at the Catholic university at Washington, D. C., is at his home on Cliff street.

Miss Florence L. Stanton of Hamilton avenue is visiting her sister, Mrs. Francis Stager, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gear of Norwich has been visiting her niece, Mrs. Fred W. Tillinghast, of Central Village.

Mrs. Joseph Gilman of Mystic was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Slater in Stafford Springs the past week.

Joseph R. Rinehart, assistant secretary of the Y. M. C. A., left last Thursday for a visit with relatives in and near Boston.

Mrs. J. S. L. Herbert and son Harold of Griswold and Mrs. Charles Anderson of Jewett City, attended the exhibition at the Norwich Art school Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Perkins of Norwich have been guests of the former's sister, Mrs. L. M. Stevens, of Westbrook, who is also entertaining her mother, Mrs. William M. Perkins, of Westbrook.

Mrs. Helen Anderson and Mrs. Agnes Blackburn have returned to Norwich to visit several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Choper of New York spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer D. Kinsman, on Grant avenue Stafford Springs.

SALVATION ARMY STILL NEEDS $2,800

The local Salvation Army is still short about $2,800 of its campaign quota of $6,300. Norman J. Hicks, campaign director, stated Sunday night that about $2,800 has been raised to date. Mr. Hicks is now making plans for a Salvation Army tag day to be held next Saturday. The ministers of the city were asked to announce the tag day plan. From the ministers' reports it is expected that the quota for reconstruction work in Connecticut will have been secured.

Forty small towns are yet to be heard from either because their reports are not complete or because the campaign has been temporarily postponed. Reports are still coming in from various parts of the state, and the latest show that Hartford gave almost its full quota, $37,000, while New Haven turned in more than $20,000.

Reports continue to come in from the small towns and villages throughout the state. A number of these towns have raised their quotas while others are near Boston.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.

At the time appointed those to be admitted were presented by the branch secretary, Mrs. William H. Smith. The pastor of the church, Rev. William H. Smith, and other members of the church were present.

The cardinal point was the protection of purity and the consecration of womanhood. The fundamental purpose of the Girls' Friendly society is to uphold a standard of life, a high individual standard, and its object is to band together in one society, church women and girls, for mutual help and sympathy, and to encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents and faithfulness to duty. Every candidate pledges herself to regard these things before she is admitted.

The sermon was preached by the pastor, who said, in part, that every woman, especially every young girl with culture, influence and social power, should awaken to the needs of her sex. It is woman's duty to be a help to her husband, to be a mother to her children, to be a friend to her neighbors, and to be a worker for the betterment of the world.